Editorial

A late Christmas newsletter. The batterings of fate have hit the computer systems at Aylestone and they have never quite recovered. Hopefully 2015 will bring improvement. Meanwhile the usual advice about Christmas parties and dogs (and cats!). More under Health and Behaviour.

Committee News

The Registrar, Jenny Clarke has published some poetry, Tea and Ginger Cake, and Playing with Matches, both available on Amazon. Not a lot about dogs, sadly, but she is still working on Noah's Ark, a volume of poetry about animals, due out Christmas 2015.

Health and Behaviour

Christmas Parties and Celebrations

Noisy parties, loud music and celebrations are not quite dogs, or pups, cup of tea. Make sure dogs are in their safe, secure place during the celebrations. Puppies, with mum, must be well away from all the jollity. Also remember they are not toys and discourage children from playing with small pups. Mum will get upset and puppies may get displaced or cold. (All this, of course, also follows if you have cats or kittens). Enjoy Christmas, don't have an accident that spoils everything for everyone! Keep safe! Keep dogs safe!

Food

Christmas cake, Christmas pudding, chocolate and mince pies are all extremely bad for dogs. Anything with dry fruit in it can make them extremely ill. Chocolate can cause all sorts of problems as it is poisonous for dogs – try carob instead if you must give a chocolatey treat!

New Pup News

K. Lee has pups with Luxurious Lass and Cooke's Pennine Pete. S. Shah has pups with Leonora Belle and Almost White John of Aylestone.

Christmas Poem

Chistmas time,
Choristers are trilling,
All the bulldogs
Are sleeping.

Christmas time,
The Angels are winging,
All the bulldogs
Are barking!

Christmas time,
The bells are ringing,
All the bulldogs
Are singing.

Christmas time,
The Babe's in swaddling,
All the bulldogs
Are worshipping.

Late News

Vicki Biggs has 9 pups with Cooke's Workforce Wanda and Workforce Marshall Dillon. Congratulations. We believe all pups are homed but Vicki can be found on Facebook.

Endpiece – newsletters come by email. Ring Jenny on 0116 2442313 or 07974281718 to get it by post.

A Very Merry Christmas to you all, and all good wishes to others celebrating!
